

CASA DE OLAS

HOUSE

LA PUNTA ESTATES · PUNTA MITA

Part of the exclusive La Punta del Faro Estates, Casa de Olas is a sublime creation by world-renowned architect Diego Villaseñor, who also designed the Four Seasons Resort Punta Mita. Diego's approach to architecture pays homage to the natural while incorporating the Mexican contemporary Pacific Coastal architecture. Native simplicity and warm colors complement modern conveniences, resulting in an alluring and meditative experience. Located on the Northernmost tip of the Punta Mita Peninsula offering spectacular views to the Marietas Islands, incredible sunsets all year round and very close to premier golfing, surf breaks, fine dining and shopping, this trip to Punta Mita is sure to be one for the books! A resort size swimming pool blend with sea surf, islands and sky, enhancing undisturbed views of the blue horizon. Nearby, full bar and lounge that connect with the expansive indoor living and dining area for intimate gatherings and fantastic sunsets. Indoors, you will find also a home theater, satellite TV, Blu-ray/DVD players, iPod dock, Wi-Fi access and games. A fitness room helps you keep on top of your workouts while you are away. A network of pathways leading connect each unique structure. The interiors of Casa de Ola are expansive and regal with special touches. Whether you are curling up on the plush couches with a good read or sharing a special announcement around the lovely dining set, you will surely adore the romantic ambience. Six magnificent bedrooms and seven and a half bathrooms make Casa de Olas perfect family retreat. Each bedroom features an en-suite bathroom and a variety of perks. Private office building with 360 degree view observatory. Casa de Ola is located inside the Punta Mita gates, today home of the Four Seasons and St Regis Resorts with access to the Community Fitness and Tennis Center, both Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Courses, the private Residents Beach Club, the Four Seasons and Saint Regis Hotel restaurants.
